THE ECONOMIST
DOUBLE OVEN COOKING STOVE,
(Which received the First Premium at the St. Louis Fair, lately held at Jennville.)

Possesses great advantages over every other stove, for pilot and direct application of heat, being so arranged that one or both ovens can be used at pleasure. It will cook half the time of any other stove now in use, and with the fuel, not consuming over four cords of wood in a year.

The TRIUMPH, single oven, latest in long wood, is general satisfaction.

The PALETTINI is different in its construction from the other saws, in the arrangement of the backknowledge to be a great improvement.

The JUNO PAZIOLO is adapted to either wood or iron, being decidedly the easiest arrangement ever offered to the ironing trade. It is made of the best material, combined with the necessities of the open grate. It is beautiful, ornamental, highly finished, and perfect in every respect. The centre door above and below the grate being opened, the fire is easily seen, and the grate is arranged so that water is kept at a temperature out of sight. It is equally adapted for use as well as for heat.

The KADIA TORRE is the best of all stove ever got up to date.

PATENT MEDICINES

Another Scientific Wonder!
DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S
GREAT DYSPEPSIA CURE!

PEPSINE

DIGESTIVE FLUID.

BAKER'S PATENT, OR GASTRIC JUICE
 PREPARED from Rousei, or the fourth Stomach of the Ox, after direct action of Nature's Lactic Acid, by the Philosophical Chemist, by J. S. Houghton, M. D., Philadelphia, Pa.
 This is a truly wonderful remedy for Indigestion, by persons generally, Liver Complaint, Constipation, and Biliousity. During the Nature's own method, by Nature's or Alkali, the Gastric Juice.

It is the chief constituent of Pepsin, in fact water is the solvent of the dissolved constituents of Meats, In fact in about two-thirds of the weight of the stomach.

Peptin is the chief element, or Great Digestive Principle, of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifier, the Preserver, and Stimulating Agent of the Stomach as well as the Dissolver of the Diet. It is the chief element of the Gastric Juice, thus forming an Artificial Digestive Fluid, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it.

The acid of this preparation is of the same strength as the acid of the proposed medicine, and is not removed, just as it would be by an Alkaline Stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspepsia, or SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE.

Joseph Lindley, in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says: "An Artificial Digestive Fluid, analogous to Gastric Juice, may be readily prepared from the contents of the stomach of the calf, in which variety of fluids of the stomach, as milk and sugar, will be dissolved and digested in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach."

Dr. Peter V. of his famous treatise on "Food and Diet" published in 1844, states the same great fact, and describes the method of preparation. There are few other authorities than H. Perren.

H. Perren, in his valuable writings on the "Physiology of Digestion," observes that "a diminution of the quantity of the gastric juice is a prominent and all pervading cause of Dyspepsia," and he states that "a distinguished professor of medicine in London, who was a great admirer of the Gastric Juice, existing in the human stomach, had recourse to the Gastric Juice, obtained from the stomachs of living animals, which proved completely

Professor Dimpelson, of the Jefferson College, Philadelphia, in his great work on Human Physiology, devoted a whole chapter to an examination of this subject. His experiments with Dr. Beaumont, on the Gastric Juice, established the fact that the gastric juice is secreted from the living human stomach, and from a

Dr. John W. Draper, Professor of Chemistry, in the Medical College of the University of New York, in his "Text book of Physiology," says: "The question of the absorption of food is a question whether artificial digestion could be performed better than that which is naturally performed in the stomach—but it is now universally admitted that it may be."

Dr. Carpenter's standard work on Physiology, which is in the library of the College, says: "The question of the absorption of food is a question whether artificial digestion could be performed better than that which is naturally performed in the stomach—but it is now universally admitted that it may be."

The College is full of evidence similar to the above, respecting the remarkable digestive power of Pepsin. In the diet that it may be readily separated from the stomach.

The fact that an Artificial Digestive Fluid, or Gastric Juice, perfectly resembling the natural fluid, may be so easily prepared, does not seem to have been applied to the cure of indigestion and Dyspepsia—in naturally due such a use suggests itself to the mind.

Dr. Housner's PEPSON has produced the most marvellous cures, in striking cases of Biliousness, Nervous Debility, and Indigestion. It is impossible to give the details of cases in the limits of this advertisement; but authenticated certificates have been given more than Two Hundred Remarkable Cures, in Philadelphia, New York, and other cities. In Biliousness, Indigestion, and the cure was not only rapid and permanent.

It is a great Nervous Antidote, and particularly useful in tendency to Bilious disorder, Head complaint, Fever, and all the ailments of the Digestive and Evil humors.

OLD STOMACH COMPLAINTS.
There is no other of Old Stomach Complaints which does not count its result and remove at once. No matter how bad they may be, it gives instant Relief! A single dose determines all the unpleasant symptoms, and the patient needs to be repeated for a few days to remove these. It is a permanent cure for Indigestion, Flatulency, Bloating, and all the other ailments of the Stomach. It is particularly excellent in case of the
